PG&E Bill Ready Notification

Please note bill payment transaction fees are changing. You can avoid fees by signing up for recurring payments or by logging into your PG&E account to use the One-Time payment option with your checking/savings account.

If you pay by phone or use the One-Time payment option without logging into your account, the revised transaction fees below will apply.

Effective 5/19/2025, the transaction fees will be:

For residential customers using a consumer/personal credit card or debit card: $1.50.

For business customers using a consumer/personal credit card or debit card: $6.95.

For payments made with a commercial credit card, the surcharge will be 1.95% of the payment amount.

To learn more about your bill payment options and how transaction fees are set, please visit pge.com/waystopay.

Your paperless bill for account ending in 5441-5 is now available.
