On 05-04-2025 23:30:00, an aggravated assault occurred at Lawrence Hall of Science.

Tonight, the University of California Police Department (UCPD) responded to a stabbing incident near the Lawrence Hall of Science (LHS). Upon arrival, UCPD found the victim with multiple stab wounds. The three suspects were described as wearing all black, but no further details about their appearance are available. The suspects fled the scene, and their current location is unknown. UCPD is actively searching for them, and this case is under investigation.

Aggravated assault is an unlawful attack by one person upon another for the purpose of inflicting severe or aggravated bodily injury. This type of assault is usually accompanied by the use of a weapon or by means likely to produce death or great bodily harm.

If you have any information about this crime, please contact:

UCPD (510) 642-6760

UCPD would like to remind the campus community about the following safety tips:

- Use and encourage others to have a safe means of conveyance at all times (e.g. travelling with a trusted friend or in a group, taking a taxi, or utilizing the free night safety services available to every member of the campus community such as BearWalk or the night safety shuttle: nightsafety.berkeley.edu).
- If you need help, dial 911 or use a blue light emergency phone (located throughout the campus and identified by a blue light on top of the phone box or column).
- Please do not delay in calling 911. UCPD strongly encourages the reporting of criminal or suspicious activity in a timely manner.

In case of injury please consider accessing one of the following medical options:
