Trip Details

Prefer a Different Flight Time?

Making changes to your trip is easier than ever. If a different flight is available – and you are within 24 hours of departure – you can request to fly standby that same day. The best part? You can make the request on My Trips without paying a fee or contacting an agent. Visit Same-Day Flight Changes for more information. Terms apply.

Save Time At The Airport

Prepay for checked bag fees, if applicable, online during check-in. Then use our self-service airport kiosks to print your bag tag and attach it to your bag before dropping it with an agent. Pay For Bags Through MyTrips ›

Arrive Early For Your Flight

Allow extra time for check-in and security screening before your flight given increased passenger volume. We recommend planning to arrive at least two hours prior to your scheduled departure time for domestic flights and three hours for international flights. Review when check-in closes for your flight.

Refer To Your Boarding Pass To Find Your New Boarding Zone Number

To simplify our boarding process, the branded zones previously used during the boarding process have been renamed and will now be communicated as numbered zones (1-8). Refer to your boarding pass for your zone number and board accordingly. View numbered boarding zones on delta.com.

Review Restricted Hazardous Items Before You Board

For the safety of all travelers and airport staff, certain items must not be brought on board or checked in baggage.

Lithium-ion batteries found in smart bags, portable chargers, vape pens and more are not allowed in your checked baggage. Additionally, firearms (loaded or unloaded) are not permitted through TSA security checkpoints. For more information on the transport of firearms, firearms parts and ammunition, visit the TSA website.

Delta will not accept the following as carry-on or checked baggage on any Delta mainline or Delta Connection flight:

- Smart bags with non-removable lithium-ion batteries
- Self-balancing transportation devices (Hoverboards)
- Damaged, defective and/or recalled lithium batteries

Further information and specific guidelines regarding restricted items can be found on delta.com.

Advice To Passengers On Limitations Of Liability

For international travel to or from another country, airline liability is governed by the Montreal Convention or the Warsaw Convention. There are no financial limits for death or bodily injury, and the airline may make an advance payment to cover immediate economic needs. The airline's liability for passenger delay, and for loss, delay or damage to baggage may be limited by the Conventions. In case of baggage, the liability limit is 1131 Special Drawing Rights (approximately US $1787) per passenger for international travel. The baggage limit is US $3,500 per ticketed passenger for US domestic travel. These baggage liability limitations apply unless you declare a higher valuation and pay additional charges at check-in. In case of international travel, any action in court to claim damages must be brought within two years from the date of the actual or scheduled arrival of the aircraft; and, in case of baggage claims, written notice to the carrier must be made within 7 days of the receipt of checked baggage in case of damage, and, in case of delay, within 21 days from the date on which it was placed at the disposal of the passenger. If your journey also involves carriage by other airlines, you should contact them for information on their limits of liability. See the notice with your tickets or consult your airline or travel agent for further information.

For more information about your passenger rights please contact your air carrier (www.delta.com/appr) or visit the Canadian Transportation Agency's website.

Si l'embarquement vous est refusé, ou si votre vol est annulé ou retardé d'au moins deux heures ou si vos bagages sont perdus ou endommagés, vous pourriez avoir droit au titre du Règlement sur la protection des passagers aériens, à certains avantages au titre des normes de traitement applicables et à une indemnité. Pour de plus amples renseignements sur vos droits, veuillez communiquer avec votre transporteur aérien (www.delta.com/appr) ou visiter le site Web de l'Office des transports du Canada.
